Gateway to Science Hires STEM Leader

Bismarck – Gateway to Science announces the hiring of Janet Rosario as its STEM Leader. Rosario and her family have recently moved to Bismarck from the New Orleans, LA area. She has Bachelor and Master's degrees in Biological Sciences from the University of New Orleans and most recently worked as a Research Associate in the Ochsner Health System in New Orleans. As STEM Leader, Rosario will promote and arrange Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math programming both on and off-site through hands-on projects and events like STEMzone, field trips and special events. Organizations wishing to arrange a STEM event can contact Gateway to Science at (701)258-1975.

Gateway to Science is North Dakota's hands-on science center, located in the Frances Leach High Prairie Arts & Science Complex, 1810 Schafer Street in Bismarck, ND. The hands-on gallery is open Monday through Thursday, 12:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., Friday and Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. In addition to an interactive exhibits gallery, they offer STEM educational outreach programs serving people of all ages, including out-of-school time clubs, camps, and free family events.
